

Chamber honours local youth

Six youth are the recipients of scholarships, thanks to the Milton Chamber of Commerce. Annually, the local business group offers scholarships to students attending a post-secondary institution. They are available to one student from each of Milton's high schools. In addition, one student entering a recognized apprenticeship program and a child of a Chamber member is also selected out of the pool of applicants. Each recipient received $1,000.

The recipients include Matthew McDermott (apprenticeship), Ann Mathulla of Bishop Reding Secondary School, Jessica Kennedy of Craig Kielburger Secondary School, Mohammad Kumyl Najeeb of Milton District High School, Jean Vanier Catholic Secondary School's Brandon Jozwik and Liam Ma (Child of a Chamber Member). Guidance counsellors from Milton's high schools assisted in the application process. The scholarship program is funded by the Milton Farmers' Market Scholarship Café and the Milton Chamber of Commerce Sports Celebrity Dinner and Auction. The recipients were selected by a special committee, which included Melissa DeBrouwer, Nick Mocan of C.F. Crozier & Associates, Ron Hudson and Rob Duvall of RDC Networks.
