Make miracles happen Dec. 12

Sickness and poverty don't discriminate, so neither should the spirit of giving.

That's the message behind the Tiger Jeet Singh Foundation's annual Miracle on Main Street fundraiser, which will be held for an eighth year on Monday (Dec. 12).

Troy's Diner (295 Main St. E.) will once again play host to the morning festivities, which runs from 6 to 9 a.m.

The free event will feature amusement rides, live entertainment and appearances from Walter Gretzky, Canada's most famous hockey dad, as well as Maple Leafs and Ti-Cats alumni. Organizers Tiger Jeet Singh Sr. and Jr. and Troy Newton will be accepting unwrapped toys, cash and lifestyle products that'll be donated to Halton Women's Place, Halton Learning Foundation, McMaster Children's Hospital, the Milton Salvation Army Food Bank and the Toronto Hospital for Sick Children.

Tiger Jr. says the fundraiser not only supports a number of worthy causes but helps bring people of different faiths and cultures together. For more, visit www.miracleonmain.ca.
