

A Peep Behind the Curtains of Time

NORMAN A.
ARMSTRONG

NOW

ONE YEAR

Norman A. Armstrong was born in Queenston, Ont. He received his early education in Niagara Falls Collegiate Institute, and later in Toronto. He has been an architect in Toronto since 1902. Industrial architecture has been his particular line, although he has designed a number of private residences in Toronto. He is a member of the Kiwanis Club, the Board of Trade, the Y.M.C.A. and the new Rouge Hills Golf Club, where he has recently designed the club house. Bowling and fishing are his favorite recreations.
