

Capt. R. C. Coatsworth

Decorated for Bravery

His devotion to duty and bravery following the launching of the recent big drive by the Germans, has won the Military Cross for Capt. R. C. Coatsworth, son of Dr. Coatsworth, 296 Parliament street, and a nephew of Judge Coatsworth. At the time he won the cross he was with the South Midland Field Ambulance Corps, a unit which greatly distinguished itself in withstanding the onslaughts of the Germans. For ten days Capt. Coatsworth and his men manned the battlelines and fought the Germans who were in superior numbers.
