Knowledge to the top through faith

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Let me begin with a huge thank you to Mrs. Rogers, the yearbook advisor, and to Kate Lamotte, the student responsible for creating this yearbook. As the years go by you will appreciate the memories that have been captured in the yearbook photos. This past school year has been filled with memorable events and activities.

We began September with a trip to Camp Olympia and to Quebec City. Both were great fun. Our football team did very well and community was hugely supportive in its formation and enjoyed attending the games.

Our Student Council, led by Taylor Baum, had an exceptional year. They planned and ran assemblies, dances, spirit weeks, football rallies and fundraisers for Terry Fox, (remember walking around the gym because it poured rain), Newark Neighbours and Hand in Hand. The interact club and Eco Club were just as busy and our students and our community benefitted from their attention to local issues and global issues, like Hearts for Haiti concert.

This year's production of Back to the 80's was an incredible success. It played to sold out audiences and the students involved had just as much fun as the audiences had. Ms. Wylde, the director, Mrs. Hutchison, the musical director, and Mrs. Black the producer, came away fully satisfied that the cast and crew had generated a show that was immensely entertaining. The choir performed for the public on several occasions: the ice dogs game, the Business Education Council breakfast, and Canada's Wonderland to name a few. The Coffee Houses proved to be very popular and gave our talented students several chances to perform. Our visual artists had several opportunities to display their art work throughout the year and even sold some of the pieces during hearts for the Hearts for Haiti campaign.

Who can forget the beautiful Remembrance Day Ceremony in downtown Niagara-on-the-Lake on that gorgeous sunny morning? We gathered as an entire school to pay our respects to our men and women; the choir sang and Lucy Campbell and Taylor Poulin did their readings capably. The sports teams were extremely active and the coaches and players deserve hearty thanks for representing our school so well. Our community volunteer coaches like Ed McCarthy, Nathan Green, Kirk Schriefer, Bob Dyck, and Phil Jones get a special thanks.

Congratulations to all graduates; you are prepared for whatever path you follow.

To all the students and staff: best wishes and good luck where ever you are headed.

Mr. M. Cockburn
Principal

FROM THE VICE PRINCIPAL

It is a pleasure to address the student body through the medium of the yearbook. Each year, as a result of hard work and dedication of the yearbook committee, we are able to have a permanent record of all of the work, fun, friends and excitement that makes each year a special part of our lives.

I have enjoyed my year at NDSS as Vice-Principal. Although I have worked in education a long time, each year is a highlight in my personal life. Special thanks to all graduates for your contributions to NDSS and may each of you enjoy success in your next stage of life beyond high school. This yearbook is a valuable and treasured item, to be saved and studied over the years to remind us what the "good years" in high school are all about.

Congratulations to each and every one of you. Thanks for the memories, I know you will continue to excel as an NDSS trojan for years to come.

Mrs. Mitzi Klassen

It saddens us all to see the end of our fine institution, but none can leave without great memories. We, as a staff, have been continually blessed with as fine and talented a school of students as Ontario is able to produce. Your excellence in arts, academics and athletics has been a constant source of pride throughout our careers. Indeed, no teacher who has ever experienced the infinite joy of working at Niagara District has ever left without a feeling of having been privileged for doing so. We wish all of our students, both past and present, only the very best, and know in our hearts that your imagination, ambition and pursuit of excellence, where ever you may be, will continue to do us all proud in the future.

Way to go Trojans, to say the least, I think we are going out with a bang! It's been an honour to be your student council president this year. Thanks for all the help from my student council team members who worked all year to make every event such a success. From Mr. Cockburn going deep into the vault to Kamo's hungry dragon, I'd like to thank all of the Niagara District Staff for sticking it out until the end; District wouldn't be the same without you.

Best of luck to all of the graduates from Niagara District Secondary School, which is not only the Grade 12 senior class but also includes 9-11. Carry on the great name of Niagara District and keep up the spirit. The other schools won't know what hit them; a group of outstanding, unique individuals with talents that range for miles.

Long live the Trojans!

The music department has ended the year on a high note! We have been very active providing opportunities for the students to perform and assist with school and community functions. The bands, choirs and music council have been involved in providing music for the Terry Fox Run, assemblies, holiday concerts, the Santa Claus Parade, commencements and courtyard concerts at noon. The choir has actively promoted itself in the community by volunteering at numerous charitable events and galas, including the Health System luncheon and BEC breakfast.

Highlights of the year include performing at the festival in Canada's Wonderland, beginning a new Show Choir at NDSS, engaging many multi-talented students in the awesome musical "Back to the 80's", impressing the judges and student body in "District Idol" and entertaining audiences in our many jams and coffee house evenings.

The music council has enjoyed planning all of these events, culminating in our popular annual Trivia Night at the Kinsmen Hall and the Alumni music concert in the NDSS gym, which celebrates District musicians present and past who have graced up with their unbelievable musical talent.

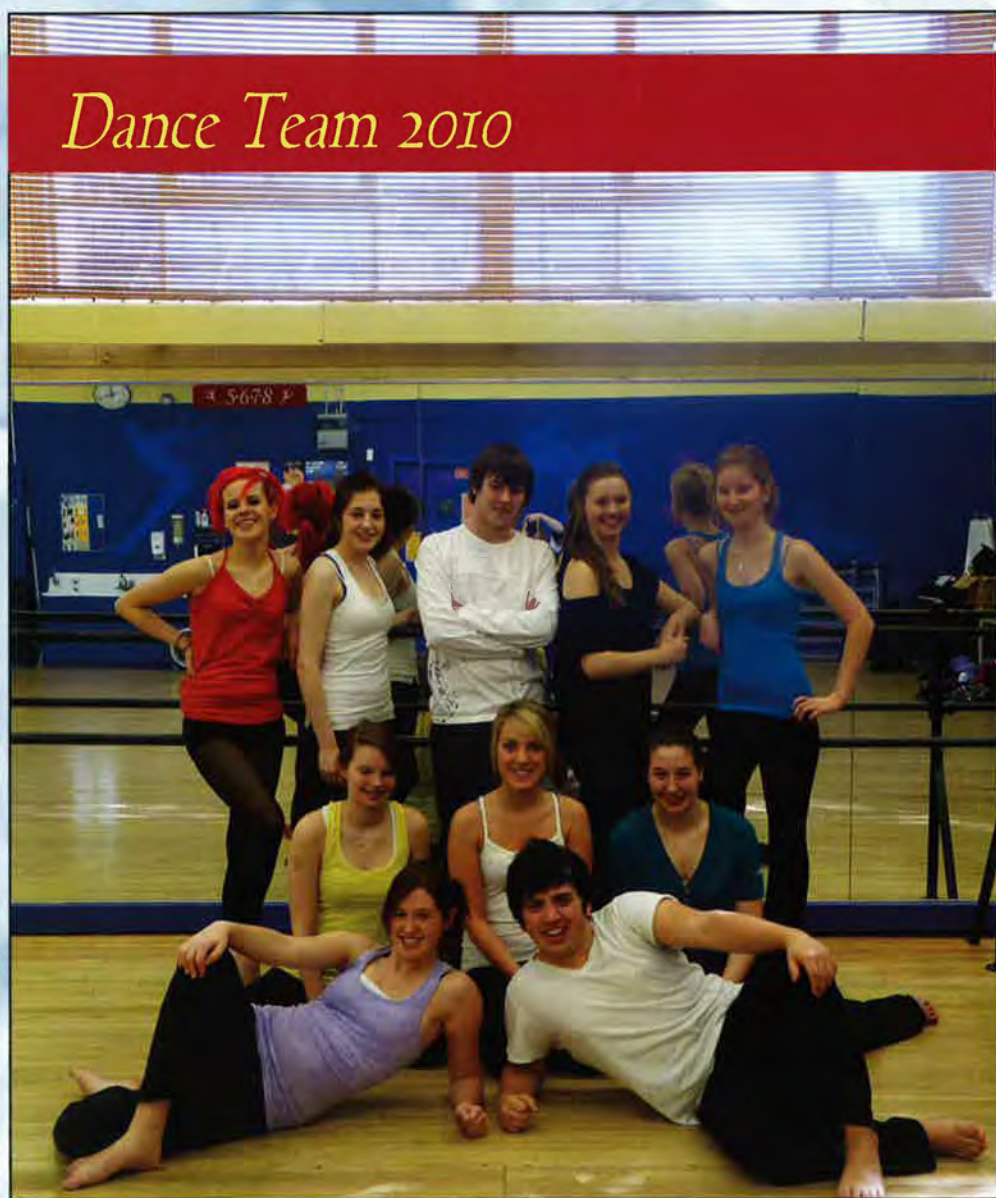

All the best in the future!

BACK TO THE 80's: The Cast

Niagara District's production of "Back to the 80's" was a musical journey to a world of shoulder pads, blue eyeshadow, Atari and totally awesome songs like Footloose, Girls Just Wanna Have Fun and You Give Love a Bad Name"

When the production team was deciding on a musical, we really wanted to have a fun, energetic show and "Back to the 80's" seemed the perfect choice. This book musical showcased the talents of all of our arts students, including band members, actors, singers, dancers, set designers and technical crew. In the musical, the main character, Corey reflects back on high school experiences. This seemed very timely as NDSS staff and students were contemplating our time at our own wonderful school. Through this musical experience, we were able to make memories that will last a lifetime. It was a true privilege to have worked with such energetic and creative young people and it reinforced the fact that NDSS has truly fantastic students.

NDSS WRITES

Indeed your shampoo
is better than the rest
your shelf life
inspires me to buy you
above all else

silky and smooth goddess
like your Venus leg shavers Lips succulent red
with those cheery Lifesavers

Indeed I'm loving it
your slim fast waist
your 3 week abs
keep your plastic head in place

I saw you last week
on late night talk
the host was a mouth
who took gossip for a walk

to me your words are the twittering
bomb
celebrities keeping the tenwion calm

I smell you and I know
your life is ambitious
you strive to be pop glam
and just B Delicious

Its no secret Victoria knows
you just keep dancing
in your best clothes

Do you ever get a hangover
when you finally come down?

Nigel Inneo

Shall I compare thee to a perfect song?
Music and lyrics they are never wrong.
Girl you are smiling almost every day.
I wouldn't have it any other way.

I just can't stand to see you when you frown.
Oh I could turn yor world right upside down.
I will be with you until the world ends.
When you go away my love I will send.

I will love you as long as my heart beats.
When your not beside me I can not sleep.
Your eyes are as blue as the calm ocean.
Your kiss is almost like a love potion.

I shall compare thee to a perfect song
Because when I say it I'm never wrong.

Elias Vanscoy

When we touch, the angels burst out in tears.
The stars lined up and we were meant to be.
To be without her is my only fear.
Where truly in love how could you not see?

Her lips so soft and her kiss just so sweet.
Hair like silk, a most prized possession.
As you come near her, you feel her heat.
Be with her and never have any transgression.

Every minute, very hour, every day.
I want her, no need her, all of the time.
Her enemy is the one I will slay.
To take her from my life would be a crime.

To belong to her is my lifelong quest.
My princess, my queen, my only, the best

Timothy Upshall

Everytime you touch my cheek
Your laugh is a symphony to my ears
I love the way you kiss my cheek
Boy, you take away all of my fears.
Everytime I think of you, I smile
From loving you my heart much weigh a ton
Please keep my hands in yours for a while
You make me feel as if I am someone
Being with you takes away any pain
I fall in love with Everything you do.
When you look at me, I go insane
I bet you don't know how much I love you
My love grows stronger for you everyday
When you are here, everything is okay.
