

WHEN: Thursday, November 4 - Sunday November 7, 1982

WHERE: Toronto, Royal York Hotel

WHO: Arnold Edinborough, President, Council for Business and the Arts in Canada. "The Art of Being Indispensable".

James Fisher, Management Consultant, President CAUCUS Holdings and a Director of CITRISUN Import Agencies. "Creative Management in the 80's".

Hon. Bruce McCaffrey, Minister of Citizenship and Culture. Keynote speaker at OLA's banquet celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Free Libraries Act in Ontario.

SPECIAL EVENTS INCLUDE:

80th Anniversary Banquet to honour OLA past presidents, OLTA award winner, featuring Canadian Opera Co. Ensemble in "Opera Highlights".

Exhibits, with complimentary lunch and Author's autographing session.

Tours of "The Journal" studio, CBC Library, Roy Thomson Hall.

Vignettes from Ontario's library history.

Display of OLA archives.

REGULAR CONFERENCE SESSIONS . . . A SAMPLING:

Time Management with Harold Taylor, Time Management Institute

A fresh look at educational possibilities for adults

Management implications of Bill 82

Analphabétisme chez nous

Managing with a union

Community networking for libraries

What is professionalism for trustees? librarians?

Marketing the public library

Authority records

Children's book illustration with Arnold Lobel and Lazlo Gal

Interpersonal skills

User surveys in academic libraries