9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

CREATING A SERVICE-ORIENTED
STAFF TO MEET THE NEEDS OF A BILINGUAL COMMUNITY

Speakers: Carol Germa, Sudbury Public Library; Geraldine Salter, Iroquois Falls Public Library.

How have libraries created service-oriented staffs that can meet the needs of bilingual communities? Acquire specific knowledge about the use of service plans, staffing and training to help you serve your community better.

#105

Thursday, Nov. 14
9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

NATIVE STORIES: WHO SHOULD TELL THEM,
WHO SHOULD WRITE THEM.

Speakers: Panel to be announced.

Develop an appreciation for native authors and a better understanding of native issues and how those issues are transferred to the storytelling art. Expect a lively debate among the native and non-native writers and storytellers on the panel.

#106

Thursday, Nov. 14
9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

PARTNERS IN ACTION: THE SECOND WAVE

Speakers: Members of the Council of Ontario School Library Consultants Steering Committee.

Learn what you can do to further the development of school libraries in Ontario as envisaged in the week long strategic planning session held last May at Eaton Hall. Library consultants from around the province will highlight important issues and stimulate discussion about the new plan.

#107

Thursday, Nov. 14
9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

BRIDGING THE GAP BETWEEN COMMUNITY CENTRES
AND LIBRARIES TO SERVE
MULTICULTURAL COMMUNITIES

Speakers: Fatima Fillipi, Rexdale Women's Centre; Chrysostom Louis, Cross Cultural Communication Centre, Toronto; Myrta Sabas, Kitchener-Waterloo Multicultural Centre.

Understand the roles and activities of community centres in supporting cultural groups and the barriers to communication that appear to exist with libraries. Share strategies for new approaches and initiatives that will improve links between the two institutions.
