

Resource Links

CONNECTING CLASSROOMS, LIBRARIES & CANADIAN LEARNING RESOURCES

...announcing Canada's newest national journal devoted to the review and evaluation of Canadian learning resources for children and young adults with suggestions for their promotion in schools & libraries

Resource Links reviews —

informational books, picture books, novels for children and young adults, resource materials for everyone from preschoolers to teens, audio-visual materials, CD-ROM, computer software and electronic resources for young people.

Resource Links suggests — thematic links, seasonal titles, genre and subject book lists for the promotion of Canadian materials.

Resource Links informs — you about Canadian writers, awards, best-sellers, treasures and international books of interest to a Canadian audience.

Resource Links is written by — educators and librarians working with young people across the nation. Our review coordinators span the country from British Columbia to Prince Edward Island.

Council for Canadian Learning Resources

604-810 West Broadway, Vancouver, BC V5Z 4C9

Voice: 604-925-0266 Fax: 604-925-0566

SEE US AT BOOTH
540

EL

Ken Haycock's

EMERGENCY LIBRARIAN

Let us help!

"...highly recommended" • "...outstanding"

With challenging articles that address your practical and relevant concerns straight on, regular review sections and columns in every issue on information technology, children's authors, and professional reading, we provide the answers, tips and information you need to stay up-to-date as a teacher-librarian.

Subscribe today!

5 Issues Per Year — $49 Billed; $44 Prepaid

SAVE: When you subscribe for 2 Years:

$82 Prepaid; $89 Billed

In Canada: Add 7% GST • GST #R114035599

PUBLISHED BY ROCKLAND PRESS

P.O. BOX 34069, Department 284, Seattle, WA 98124-1069

In Canada at: 604-810 West Broadway, Vancouver, BC V5Z 4C9

email: eml@rockland.com

Phone: (604) 925-0266 Fax: (604) 925-0566

SEE US AT BOOTH 538