THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY CONFERENCE OF THE ONTARIO LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

THE FACTS

BADGES AND RECEIPTS

Do not throw your badge away. It includes your official receipt. Your badge is also your entrance ticket to all sessions, the exhibit and the receptions. To redeem your drink tickets at the EDU Reference Reception at EXPO 2001 on Thursday and the winetasting extravaganza at the CBC Atrium on Friday, bartenders need to match your ticket to your badge. Don't forget to wear it!

CHANGES IN THE PROGRAM

The Super News 2001 is the source of up-to-the-minute information on session and room changes, on new programs and upcoming events. This newsletter is distributed at all morning sessions and is available at the Super Concierge and Registration Desks throughout the remainder of each day.

MEETING ROOM LIMITATIONS

The sizes of workshop session rooms have been chosen based on attendance indicators provided by delegates in pre-registration. Since delegates are not obligated to attend the sessions they indicate and since many do not fill out this section of the registration form, some rooms may unexpectedly prove inadequate to the demand.

accessola.com

The Ontario Library Association's own brand, accessola.com, includes a suite of services, many of which are being unveiled during our anniversary year. Services featured include

- a quarterly news sheet for those members who do not wish to use OLA's electronic services
- a number of members-only services including free access to the full text search services of WilsonNet library publications databases
- a résumé service for those following the job market
- expansion of short-term electronic services to encourage discussion of specific subjects and issues
- the creation of a portal to the OLA web site

More details are available at the OLA Members' booth on the EXPO 2001 floor. All electronic services of the OLA use accessola.com as address.
