

Thursday, February 1, 2001

THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY CONFERENCE OF THE ONTARIO LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

view of how the Virtual Reference Library works, see companion Session #413 at 3:45 pm. Convenor: Beth Thomsett-Scott, University of Guelph.

313 OPLA MTCC 201C
2:15 pm-3:30 pm

INFORMATION AND RESOURCES FOR CANADIANS AND NEW CANADIANS

Cynthia Gantner, Communications Strategist, Citizenship and Immigration Canada; Jean Seguin, Director, Promotion Division, Integration Branch, Citizenship and Immigration.

There are many resources available on the topics of citizenship, immigration and refugees for both new Canadians and for those working with new immigrants or those seeking citizenship. Find out what's available and provide suggestions to those developing the resources. La presentation sera en anglais. Les questions seront repondues dans les deux langues officielles. Convenor: Heather Moodie, Teck Centennial Library, Kirkland Lake.

314 OPLA MTCC 104A
2:15 pm-3:30 pm

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING CHALLENGE

Beth Maddigan, Children's Services Co-ordinator, Cambridge Public Library; Nancy Mohan, Branch/Children's Librarian, Turner Branch, Kingston Frontenac Public Library; Inge Saczkowski, Manager of Children's Services, Niagara Falls Public Library; Susan Snyder, Children's Librarian, Perth & District Union Public Library; Kathy Boelsma, Children's Librarian, Smiths Falls Public Library.

Five children's programming experts - 30 ideas - 60 minutes. The challenge? Each expert has only two minutes to describe each idea. Get 30 fantastic programming ideas that are imaginative, exciting, inexpensive and suitable for any size library. Convenor: Susan Bloos, Kitchener Public Library.

315 OSLA MTCC 206E
2:15 pm-3:30 pm

APPLYING ADVANCED WEB TECHNIQUES TO PROJECT-BASED LEARNING

David McGill, Teacher librarian, Port Hope High School, Kawartha-Pine Ridge District School Board.

In several aspects of the Grade 10 Civics course, inquiry learning can be combined with the use of advanced web searching, analysis and synthesis techniques. Convenor: Diana Knight, Halton District School Board.

316 OSLA MTCC 201D
2:15 pm-5:00 pm
DOUBLE SESSION

MEDIA LITERACY IN ACTION

Mima Hoyes, Neil Andersen, Instructional Leaders, Toronto District School Board.

Gain an appreciation for a variety of resources that support media education. Learn ways of integrating a variety of literacies, print visual and media and explore some essential media literacy concepts. Convenor: Sharon Holech, Toronto District School Board.

317 OSLA MTCC 205B
2:15 pm-5:00 pm
DOUBLE COMPUTER SESSION
Maximum: 30 TICKET REQUIRED

FILAMENTALITY

Nancy Allan, Teacher librarian, Osgoode Township High School, Ottawa-Carleton District School Board.

Discover how easy it is to use Filamentality, an interactive, fill-in-the-blank web site, to design and post web-based learning activities on the internet. Search existing Filamentality web sites to find lessons posted by other teachers and explore the different learning formats available through Filamentality.

CONNECTIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS

318 OPLA 201A
2:15 pm-3:30 pm

ASPECTS OF DELIVERING GOVERNMENT INFORMATION

Sam Coghlan, Chief Librarian, Oxford County Library; George Stock, Service Canada Co-ordinator, Oxford County Library.

Oxford County Library, through its involvement as a Service Canada pilot, has proven that public libraries make a natural partner for local delivery of government services. Nonetheless, many federal bureaucrats have commented that only some libraries would deliver good service. George Stock and Sam Coghlan outline the route taken with staff, the community and partners to make Oxford County

INGE SACZKOWSKI 314

SAM COGHLAN 318

ADELE KOSTIAK 322

