

ATTEND THE BIGGEST CHILDREN AND TEENS LITERARY FESTIVAL IN CANADA

Over 10,000 people attend the Festival of Trees, a three-day awards celebration for the Forest of Reading in Toronto, with other satellite Festivals taking place across Ontario.

The days are packed with fun and engaging activities, including award ceremonies, author/illustrator workshops, roving entertainments, activities, games, and giveaways.

The Festival is co-presented by International Festival of Authors (IFOA), at the Harbourfront Centre.
