

Actions Worth A Thousand Pictures

Diane Bédard

In many schools, the Library Resource Centre hosts a little pool of enriched technology where peripherals such as scanners can be found and digital cameras can be signed out. What was once the realm of high-tech has dropped low enough in cost to be commonplace – 1.2 to 2.0 megapixel cameras are under the $200 mark and basic scanners are under $70.

