April 18, 2013

Dear member,

Welcome to the April edition of Ontario Library Association's member newsletter. In this issue: Culture Days, what our members are talking about, OLA salutes its volunteers, and more!

OLA recognizes its many Volunteer Members

April 21st – 27th, 2013 is National Volunteer Month in Canada!

We have been showcasing some of our many OLA volunteers from all library sectors with representation from all of your six divisions! Take a moment to read a bio or two and see their passion and dedication to their field and their association!

A big huge thank you to all our OLA Volunteers past and present!

Visit the OLA Volunteer Recognition Page {
http://www.accessola.org/OLAWEB/Membership/OLA_Volunteers/Welcome.aspx} to see more information on the opportunities for volunteering and to read the bios of those already showcased!

If you are an OLA Volunteer who would like to contribute your "OLA Story" and be featured in this section, please contact Beckie MacDonald

Free Conference Bags!

There are approximately 200 surplus bags from Super Conference 2013: The Ultimate Library Experience!. They are light blue and orange in colour. Please contact info@accessola.com if you would like them.

Mark the date! Notice of the OLA Annual General Meeting

Friday June 7, 12:30 pm
Bram and Bluma Appel Salon, Toronto Reference Library.
Details will be sent to OLA members in early May.
