Featured Upcoming Release: Community Library Programs That Work

In a world where the Internet offers educational opportunities 24 hours a day, where digital aids enrich and supplement printed materials, and where online instruction is a viable option to classroom teaching; a fresh approach to learning can help libraries stay relevant and interesting to their technologically-savvy patrons.

Community Library Programs That Work: Building Youth and Family Literacy provides guidelines for creating dynamic and engaging library programs for children, teens, and families. Each chapter includes relevant topical research and three to eight community-focused approaches. Programs range from small, single-library initiatives in rural communities to multi-site, cross-border initiatives. This essential reference includes collaborative and locally-inspired programs, many of which can be scaled to the budget of any library, school, or community organization.

Vote for the best Silver Birch book of all time!

For 20 years, the Forest of Reading's Silver Birch® program has taught children to read for the FUN of it.

Through adventurous fiction and informative non-fiction titles, readers have been taken on a journey with the words and illustrations of Canadian authors. So many of these books have impacted the lives of readers.

We're celebrating the 20th anniversary of the Silver Birch program through searching for the Ultimate Silver Birch Book. Readers are invited to vote for their favourite title and win great prizes, which include:

- A set of 2014 Forest of Reading® nominated titles of your choice
- A visit from a Silver Birch® mystery author
- Ten tickets to the 2014 Festival of Trees™ in May 2014
