

If you do connect in with your local MPP, please let us know how your meeting went. Email Shelagh Paterson, Executive Director.

Join Us on Twitter and Facebook!

COMING UP @ EDUCATION INSTITUTE

Registration Open for NEW Education Institute Sessions!

Last month marked the beginning of the Winter Semester for the Education Institute, and we've started it out with a bang!

Browse our full calendar of sessions to see what's on the syllabus.

Get your professional development on this winter with these great courses:

Thursday, February 5 @ 12 PM ET

How to Talk to Faculty about Questionable Journal Publishing with Lisa Goddard & Lise Brin

Tuesday and Thursday, February 10, 12, 17, 19 @ 10:30 AM ET

Grey Literature: Google for it and More with Sarah Bonato

Tuesday, February 24 @ 2 PM ET

Is it Possible to Have Too Many Friends? with Laura Dick

Thursday, February 26 @ 2 PM ET

Discover Government Publications and Legislative Libraries Via the GALLOP Portal with Greg Salmers

If you have any suggestions, or you want to present something with us in the Summer semester, please review our Information for Presenters section on our website.

FOREST OF READING® AND FESTIVAL OF TREES™

Tickets for the Festival of Trees™ on Sale NOW!

The Festival of Trees™ is an awards celebration for the Forest of Reading® school-aged programs. It is also Canada's largest literary event for young readers. More than 9,000 people attend this event in Toronto, which is co-presented by IFOA, at Harbourfront Centre, plus the thousands that attend satellite Festivals. The days are packed with award presentations, fun and engaging activities, including workshops put on by the authors/illustrators themselves.

Confirmed Festivals to Date:

Festival Dates	Ticket Price	Where to Buy
Thunder Bay (May 1) Blue Spruce, Silver Birch, Red Maple	$11	Forest of Reading® website