We Are All Advocates for Libraries!

The iSchool at the University of Toronto is proud that its popular MOOC (Massively Open Online Course), "Library Advocacy Unshushed: Values, Evidence, Action"—which attracted more than 5,200 students last year—will be offered again starting in February 2015.

Registration is free!

Anti-Spam Legislation and Public Libraries

The Federation of Ontario Public Libraries (FOPL) and the Canadian Urban Libraries Council (CULC) have released for broader distribution the legal opinion developed as a member benefit for Canadian Anti-Spam Legislation and public libraries.

Library and Archives Canada Presents Strategic Research Daily

Strategic Research Daily is an e-newspaper featuring technology, education, culture and more and drawing on social media sources.

Subscribe to updates here.

Partnership Journal Publishes Latest Issue

Partnership: the Canadian Journal of Library and Information Practice and Research has just published its latest issue.

This issue features:

- Open Data Day Hackathon 2014 at Edmonton Public Library
- The Adoption of Open Access Funds Among Canadian Academic Research Libraries
- Moving from Librarian to Knowledge Manager Plus profiles, viewpoints and more Interested in contributing?

Submission deadlines for the next issue will be:

- Peer-reviewed sections: March 1, 2015
- Other sections: March 31, 2015

---

iSchool Symposium: Future Tech Strategies for Libraries

February 19-20, 2015