

- Poster (11x17), English
- Poster (11x17), French
- Bookmarks, double sided (French/English), in packs of 50

Contest: Last year's OPLW contest received 900 contest entries from over 80 unique communities across Ontario. A new contest with exciting prizes will be announced in September! Continue to check your email for more information.

Learn more about the tagline: This year, OPLW marks the launch of a new provincial tagline to complement unite public library branding across Ontario. Learn more about the tagline during a free webinar!

French materials will be available for download next week.

COMING UP @ EDUCATION INSTITUTE

Do you have a great idea that you want to share with library professionals across Canada? Submit an EI webinar proposal today!

Be sure to register now, as space is limited.

Tuesday, August 23 @ 12:00PM ET
Sizzle and Stun: Slides That Really Work

Thursday, August 25 @ 1:00PM ET
Turning Fans Into Heroes: Advocacy for Youth - FREE

Tuesday, August 30, @ 2:00PM ET
Social Media Best Practices

HAPPENING IN THE LIBRARY WORLD

Canadian Library Association (CLA) Book Awards Collection: Available for Adoption

The Canadian Library Association's Book Awards annually recognized and celebrated outstanding authors and illustrators of Canadian books for children and young adults. The CLA Book Awards were a valued and respected program of importance to many.

CFLA-FCAB is aware of this and is working to find a new home for the awards if possible, which include:

- Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Illustrator's Award – est. 1971.
- CLA Book of the Year for Children Award – est. 1947
- CLA Young Adult Book Award – est. 1980

Because of the dissolution of CLA, the collection of award winning titles is available for adoption. Maintaining this historic collection as a cohesive collection in Canada is a great step towards keeping the CLA Book Awards alive.