

Registration now for the OCULA Spring Conference!

Join us on Apr. 28 at Hamilton's historic Mills Hardware for the Ontario College and University Library Association \(OCULA\) Spring Conference, as we explore the diverse role of stories within the academic library.

Theme: Storytime! Using Narrative to Represent Ourselves, Our Work, and Our Libraries
Member Rate $100 / Non-Member Rate $175
Student Rate (Must be a Member) / Job Seeker $70

Space is limited. REGISTER HERE >>

FOREST & FESTIVAL

Tickets for the Festival of Trees are Selling Fast!

Join us, along with 10,000 readers, teachers, library staff, and parents at the Festival of Trees. It is the culmination and celebration of the Forest of Reading school-aged program and Canada's largest literary festival for children and teens!

Tickets for Silver Birch Fiction and Red Maple Fiction have already sold out, but are still available for the other programs.

BUY YOURS TODAY >>

Register for the Forest of Reading Today!

Voting in the school-aged programs is just around the corner. You must be a 2017 Forest of Reading registrant in order for your votes to count.

As an OLA member, you can save up to $25 on your Forest registration!

REGISTER TODAY >>

Please note that Forest registration is an annual fee and separate from your Ontario Library Association membership.

UPCOMING WEBINARS