

New this year...

- A new Go Secure Quick Start Guide to help you access the survey
- New user-friendly Visual Guide to assist in filling out the Annual Survey of Public Libraries
- A shorter Annual Survey Definitions document
- A shorter Holdings section, based on public library sector input, that combines previous Circulating and Reference sections
- A new field for tracking 'Indigenous language training and retention'

The submission of timely and accurate data helps to demonstrate the value of the province's public libraries and highlights the many and varied services they provide in Ontario's communities.

To complete and e-file your Annual Survey of Public Libraries go to this website.

If you have any questions or are experiencing technical difficulties filling out your survey, please feel free to contact Ministry staff Rod Sawyer and Adam Haviaras.

Complete the Annual Survey requirements by July 31.

TAKE THE SURVEY HERE >>

CPSO Information Sessions Help Patients Make Informed Healthcare Choices

The College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario (CPSO) regulates Ontario's doctors by protecting the public interest. With community groups in mind, the CPSO has developed engaging sessions on health policy and contemporary health issues. If you are looking for a speaker for your next learning exchange or speaker series, the CPSO would like to hear from you.

Examples of topics covered in these free sessions include:

- Who regulates your doctor?
Overview of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario
- Planning for and Providing Quality End of Life Care
- Medical Records & Test Results Management

Contact CPSO to discuss your request for a speaker.

LEARN MORE >>

New TV Documentary Series Seeks Informed and Opinionated Participants!

Canada Talk Doc is planning an exciting new 3-part TV documentary series. For 28 days in August, six participants will travel across the country on a completely immersive adventure. This is an incredible opportunity to see Canada in a completely unique way. The first step is to tell the casting team more about you and your opinions here.

If you are available for 28 days this August, are open to embracing adventure, and are willing to genuinely express your thoughts and emotions on camera then apply today.

If you have questions, you can email Casting Producer Heather Muir. The deadline is June 2.

FIND OUT MORE >>