

What's Trending is your new source for news in the library world!
Problem viewing this email? Click here.

WHAT'S TRENDING IN LIBRARIES

, your membership number is .

Order OPLW Posters and Bookmarks Today!

Ontario Public Library Week is two months away! You can now request posters and bookmarks for Ontario Public Library Week (OPLW) through The Library Marketplace.

To request your posters and bookmarks, please visit The Library Marketplace and enter the amount of each poster or bookmark you require. You will be required to cover the shipping costs for your order. You will have two options for shipping: a flat fee of $11.95 plus tax or free shipping through your regular SOLS service.

Posters are available in an 11" x 17" size in both French and English. Bookmarks are available in batches of 50, and are double sided (with one side in French and the other in English).

All requests for posters and bookmarks must be received no later than Sept. 8.

Libraries attending the OLS-N conference can arrange to pick up their bookmarks and posters at the conference. Please indicate this in your order and include the name of the person and library that will be picking up the materials. If you have questions placing your order, please contact Emily Bradley.

Libraries who do not wish to request Ontario Public Library Week posters and bookmarks can also use graphics available in the Downloadable Graphics section of the Ontario Public Library Week webpage.

ORDER TODAY >>

NEWS

Take a Look at Ontario's Open Data Directive

The Government of Ontario is promoting an Open by Default approach to the proactive release of Data. It is faster and easier access to Government Data through a one-window data portal facilitates evidence-based policy, informs service delivery and promotes greater transparency and accountability. The Open Data initiative also

NEWS

Introducing IRCC's Settlement Services Toolkit

The Government of Canada, through the Ministry of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC), is introducing a new promotional toolkit to help inform all newcomers of the free services available to assist them to settle in Canada. Posters, web banners, email templates, and more