

Days network and will receive support, resources and promotion to help successfully implement programming.

Programming can be organised in any library space, regardless of size, scope or location. For more information, and to read about the variety of support Ontario Culture Days offers libraries, download our information package here.

LEARN MORE >>

organization in Canada. The adult-focused literacy program makes a positive contribution to the lives of the participants as well as the community and could serve as a model for other organizations to adapt.

There is one (1) top award of $20,000 and up to four (4) honourable mention awards in the amount of $5,000 each. The awards as granted can be invested into the program and/or applied to operating funds.

Deadline is June 4.

APPLY TODAY >>

Save 30% on BookNet's Canadian Book Market 2017 Report

BookNet Canada is offering copies of The Canadian Book Market 2017 and consumer studies on Canada's biggest genres in a discounted bundle offer, along with an extra 30% off for libraries using the coupon code LIBRARY30.

The Canadian Book Market is the most comprehensive guide on sales trends in the Canadian print trade market, updated for 2017 with detailed analysis on more than 50 subject categories including year-over-year comparative data, the top sellers in each category, market-share breakdowns, price-point analysis, performance by publication date, and more.

The eight instalments in the Deep Dive genre series combine sales trends and data on consumer behaviour and demographics to create essential guides for the top-selling subject categories in Canada: Biography & Autobiography, Mystery/Detective, Science Fiction, Cookbooks, Romance, Fantasy, History, and Historical Fiction.

The bundle can be purchased here and don't forget to apply the coupon code LIBRARY30 for an extra 30% off.

PURCHASE HERE >>

Employment Standards Review: Public Feedback Wanted

The Accessible Employment Standards Development Committee has submitted its Initial Recommendation Report to the Honourable Tracy MacCharles, Minister Responsible for Accessibility.

The Committee is now seeking public comment, prior to finalizing its recommendations to government.

The report has been posted on the ministry's website for public review and feedback.

A survey is also available on this page for the public to provide feedback on the recommendations. The survey will be available until May 5.

Your feedback will help the Committee draft their final recommendations. The Committee will submit these final recommendations to the Minister Responsible for Accessibility.