Continue Your Careerpath with The Partnership

The Partnership is Canada's national network of provincial and territorial library associations. Consisting of 12 of Canada's library associations (including OLA), more than 7,000 people who work in the library and information management belong to The Partnership.

If you're looking to take the next step in your career, visit The Partnership Job Board. The Partnership Job Board lists positions available to library and information personnel from coast to coast to coast. The Job Board is free to job seekers, and is a paid service ($55-$85) for employers.

Research Resource for Members

Are you seeking research resources to support a program or new initiative? As an OLA member you have access to Wilson Web: Library Literature and Information Science database.

This resource includes thousands of abstracts and full text articles.

Just a few examples of topics that can be found: Diversity, STEAM programming, Children's Literature, and staffing resources.

Members can sign in to their OLA account on at the top of OLA's web page (look for the text 'sign in') then select the link at the top of the page with your name on it – from there select Wilson Web.
