OLA Library Building Awards – Call for Submissions

Deadline: April 25

Category: New Library Building Award

Have you completed a new library build within the past three years? OLA showcases excellence in library space planning, design, and building projects with the OLA Library Building Awards.

The awards are presented at the Annual Institute on the Library as Place, OLA's annual space planning conference for the library, design, and architectural sectors.

This year the Annual Institute is held July 10-11 in Ottawa.

OLA Best Bets Committee is looking for new members!

The OLA Best Bets Committee is currently looking for new members to fill vacancies! Are you a librarian or library technician? Do you actively organize, manage or provide services to children and/or youth or do collection development for those ages? They'd love to have you!

The OLA Best Bets Committee reads and evaluates Canadian books, selecting the best based on their literary/artistic merit as well as their appeal for children and young adults. They present our Best Bets lists at the Ontario Library Association's Super Conference in the following year.
