NEWS FOR YOU

Digital Skills for Youth Internship Application

The Ontario Library Association will be administering the new Digital Skills for Youth (DS4Y) program for publicly-funded libraries and not-for-profit library organizations that support publicly-funded libraries across Canada.

Digital Skills for Youth (DS4Y) connects underemployed recent post-secondary graduates with small businesses and not-for-profit organizations where they can gain meaningful work experience to help them transition to career-oriented employment.

Applications for youth internships are due May 17. For more information about the DS4Y program and how you can hire a youth intern visit their website here.
