Cultural Diversity Super Conference Bursary

The Cultural Diversity and Inclusion Super Conference Bursaries are available to support recipients in their career in information/librarianship. These bursaries are intended to provide access to the OLA Super Conference to applicants who may otherwise not have the opportunity to participate. Selection will be made based on demonstration of need. Priority will be given to culturally diverse applicants.

There are two bursaries available:

- 1 bursary for Travel and Registration (Outside GTA). The recipient will receive 1 full Super Conference registration as well as up to $1,000 to cover eligible travel expenses to the conference. Acceptable expenses include travel costs and accommodations.
- 1 bursary for Registration Only (GTA). The recipient will receive 1 full Super Conference registration.

Treaties Recognition Week

Treaties Recognition Week is less than a month away – but if you're still looking for something to do, don't fear! For even the busiest schedules, there's something that can help bring treaty education to your library.

There are valuable resources online to help you get involved in Treaties Recognition Week – like a digital, searchable treaties map and a treaties video series featuring Indigenous leaders, elders and knowledge

Ressource francophone pour les bibliothécaires jeunesse

Connaissez-vous la chaîne youtube 1,2,3 on chante? Il s'agit d'une ressource pédagogique entièrement en français qui présente des comptines, berceuses, chansons, jeux de doigts et rimes en français créées et gérées par des bibliothécaires.

La chaîne, comptant présentement plus d'une soixantaine de vidéos, permet aux parents et aux employés francophones et
