Cultural Diversity Super Conference Bursary

The Cultural Diversity and Inclusion Super Conference Bursaries are available to support recipients in their career in information/librarianship. These bursaries are intended to provide access to the OLA Super Conference to applicants who may otherwise not have the opportunity to participate. Selection will be made based on demonstration of need. Priority will be given to culturally diverse applicants.

There are two bursaries available:

- One bursary – Travel and Registration (Outside GTA). The recipient will receive one full Super Conference registration as well as up to $1000 to cover eligible travel expenses to the conference. Acceptable expenses include travel costs and accommodations.
- One bursary – Registration Only (GTA). The recipient will receive one full Super Conference registration.
