because you don't have to log in, your sessions will be saved in your device's cookies and will disappear if you clear your history.

Present an OLITA Tech Talk at 2020 Super Conference

Join professionals working across all library-related sectors to learn more about interesting tech-related projects happening in our field. Topics range from exploring ground-breaking new technology to finding innovative ways to look at older tech.

Each "lightning style" talk will have a strict time limit of 5 minutes, plus some time for questions from the audience.

Submit your proposal by December 31 here. Have questions? Email Super Conference Planner Matt Rohweder.

SUBMIT HERE >>

Join Us at the Copyright Symposium!

Date: Friday, November 22, 2019
Location: Ryerson University Library, Fourth Floor
Time: 9:00-4:30pm
Registration: Member - $150 / Non-Member - $185 / Student - $35 /
First Nations Public Library Staff - $35

The OLA Copyright User's Group regularly hosts a symposium focusing on issues related to copyright for various types of libraries. The 2019 OLA Copyright Symposium will explore ideas around traditional knowledge and traditional cultural expression, with a focus on the interplay between this type of knowledge and copyright law. Space is limited, so register today to secure your spot!

REGISTER TODAY >>

UPCOMING WEBINARS

Check Out the Fall EI Calendar!

What can you do with the extra hour you've gained this fall? Invest in your learning with the Education Institute's sessions on skills development, environmental sustainability, and more! Check out the fall webinar calendar and register for a session today!

FALL WEBINAR CALENDAR >>

Coming Up @ Education Institute

Can Libraries Become More Environmentally Sustainable?
Tuesday, November 12 @ 12:00 p.m. ET

Find Your Voice: OLA Advocacy Toolkit at Your Academic Library (FREE)
Thursday, November 14 @ 12:00 p.m. ET
No Patron Is a Bad Patron