Public Services and Procurement Canada has recently launched a new video Carlie Maloney, Cataloguing Librarian, with the Publishing and Depository Services Directorate (PDSD). PDSD is responsible for the acquisition and maintenance of an online collection of Government of Canada publications (annual reports, studies, videos, books, etc.).

See how Carlie strives to demystify the misconception around librarianship by describing how it is now considered a dynamic profession, as a result of new technologies.

Book Launch - A Matter of Facts by Laura Millar

When: Wednesday, December 11, 2019

Time: 7:00 p.m. EST

Where: Library and Archives Canada, Alfred Pellan Room, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa, Ontario

Free admission and seating is limited.

Library and Archives Canada, the Ottawa International Writers Festival, Ottawa Public Library and invite you to the book launch of: A Matter of Facts: The Value of Evidence in an Information Age by Laura A. Millar.

The safeguarding of authentic facts is essential, especially in this disruptive Orwellian age, where digital technologies have opened the door to a post-truth world in which "alternative facts" can be so easily accepted as valid. And because facts matter, evidence matters.

In this urgent manifesto, archives luminary Millar makes the case that authentic and accurate records, archives, data and other sources of documentary proof are crucial in supporting and fostering a society that is respectful, democratic and self-aware.
