Give the Gift of Reading this Holiday Season! Donate to the I Read Canadian Fund

Literacy and the love of reading are critical to economic and emotional development as well as individual and community well-being. Reading for fun increases literacy skills, builds empathy, and leads to improved academic achievement. Research shows that reading for fun has a positive impact on the lives of children and young adults both in and outside of school.

Research has found a decline in children who say that they like to read. Canada is also facing a decline in literacy skills among students. We can do better to provide resources to ensure children can participate in fun and enjoyable reading experiences.

Help make this a priority by donating to the I Read Canadian Fund today.

There are many ways to give to the I Read Canadian Fund. Here's how you can get involved in supporting the I Read Canadian Fund:
