Help Keep the Comics Library Open!

Canada Comics Open Library (CCOL) is a non-profit and volunteer-run comics library located in Regent Park, Toronto. Their mission is to help make comics more accessible while increasing the representation of marginalized communities in comics, with a focus on BIPOC (Black, Indigenous and People of Colour), LGBTQ+, disabled, and women creators. They are working to achieve our mission through our library collection and space, online resources, and community events.

Some of CCOL goals this year are:

If they raise $5,537, they can...

- Continue to be a free/PWYC resource in the cozy CSI Regent Park lounge
- Make the collection circulating so you can take home comics, graphic novels, and zines!

If they raise more than that, they can...

- Host more free community events and workshops
- Pay artists for project collaborations
- and lots more!
