

will be available on the Super Conference website within each session description. Speakers can submit their material to the Super Conference email address.

You can also see images of the graphic facilitator's sketches on the Super Conference website.

See the images of posters from Thursday and Friday Poster Sessions on the website.

See familiar faces and places online and share them with your colleagues. We're uploading conference photos to the OLA Facebook account.

Did you miss our Super Conference Spotlight with climate scientist Dr. Katharine Hayhoe? You are in luck! As Dr. Hayhoe was presenting remotely from Texas, she has graciously agreed to let us share her presentation recording with all of our members. To view the Spotlight recording, please visit this link.

Whether you were able to this year's Super Conference or not, we hope to see you next year. The conference will run January 27 – January 30, 2021

Save the Date: RA in a Day

This year's RA in a Day will be held on April 28, 2020 at the North York Central Library. More information coming soon!

Awards to be presented at the RA in a Day Event in April 2020:
Leadership in Adult Reader's Advisory - Application due March 15

Save the Date: OCULA Spring Conference

When: May 1, 2020

Where: iSchool Inforum

For the OCULA Spring Conference 2020, we invite library workers and instructors from all sectors to join us for "Active Participants: Experiential Learning in Libraries."

This conference will explore how both academic and public libraries can provide accessible, experiential learning opportunities to our diverse communities.

We are now accepting proposals for Lightning Talks – submit your proposal today!

LEARN MORE >>

FOREST & FESTIVAL