Hull, A city in the township of Hull, in the county and district of Ottawa, Province of Quebec. Is the most important place in that Province west of Montreal, and is noted for its very extensive lumber trade. It possesses unrivalled water power, which is utilized by a number of mills and factories. Prominent among the latter are E. B. Eddy's extensive buildings, in which sashes, doors, blinds, mouldings, pails, tubs, zinc washboards and matches are manufactured. Other important manufacturing establishments are Batson & Currier's steam saw mills; Gilmour & Co's steam saw mill; Crandall & Co's saw mills; C. B. Wright's Cement and Lime manufactory; H. McCormick & Son's flour mills; McLeod & Esplin's flour mill; Booth's furniture factory &c. The city is connected with the Capital of the Dominion by means of a handsome Suspension Bridge, which spans the Ottawa River, immediately below the Chaudiere Falls, and from which a magnificent view is to be had of this second Niagara. Distant from Ottawa Post Office, one mile; from Aylmer, the county town, eight miles; from Montreal, by water, 130 miles—by rail, 167 miles. Is classed with the City of Ottawa under the Exceptional Postage rates, and has ample Mail and Telegraphic accommodation and a population of about 9,000.
