I would like to add, as the reasons I gay for not signing the finance report was: that was irregular, as the accounts had never 1 presented to the Council, or there was no meet ing of the committee, and that I did not of this kind, as I once before signed a report was an item of $300, or thereabouts, for which I was afterwards upbraided by a gentleman for allowing it to pass, as there was not mor than $150 value received.

Then, in the discussion that followed, took a personal turn when I immediately dis claimed any intention of a personal allusion to very slight one indeed it will be in comparison any one; but the Council not being satisfied, with the many weary days and hours which and being pressed, I stated the account, when it was immediately admitted that a mistake had occurred, and my explanation was taken as perfectly satisfactory.

As to the Mayor's remarks: he was wrong when he stated that it was acting on unfoun that a mistake had been made; and as being my "bounden duty in the protection the public-interest "-that duty was duly performed by me, and it had been neglected; but statement of mine is unimpeachable, but the amount was brought to me exagerated, and will merely add, that if you had published proceedings in length, in respect to the Sparks street crossing, a key might be found to the cause of the Mayor's remarks, and it would be seen I carried out my a bounden duty " in th protection of the public interest more plicitly than he desired.
