The announcement, by means of immense posters and advertisements in different newspapers, that Mr. H. M. Fay, formerly connected with the Davenport Brothers as their agent, would give an expose of the tricks of those gentlemen, drew together last evening, in the basement of the Cooper Institute, an audience of about two hundred persons. On the stage was what appeared to be mense wooden plate-warmer; inside a number of bells of different sizes, a drum, a tin trumpet, and a tambourine. At eight o'clock the lecturer appeared. He was a young looking man, with small light mustache and light hair, worn long behind.

Returning the greeting of the audience with a bow, a more or less graceful, Mr. Fay said his object in appearing before them was to expose one of the greatest frauds and humbugs of the age. The Automatic Organ. In presenting the AUTOMATIC ORGAN, We Not only relieve but effect rapid and lasting boldly announce the greatest triumph in musical instruments of the age. During the past half century, the French and Germans have manufactured reed instruments with double bellows, and two pedals for the feet to operate, but the want of the reversed or Ex-HAUSTED BELLOWS, (which is the only bellows used in our instruments.) made it impossible for them to produce the mellow, ri h and musical tone for which our instruments are . Another objection to this method of blowing was, that both feet being occupied, no opportunity was offered for the management of the swell. Within the past two years, instruments constructed on this European plan of "double blowers," have been manufactured in "this country, and to counteract this difficulty (want Sold by George Mortimer, John Roberts, W. of a swell) a lever has been projected from the M.
