AN ELECTION ADDRESS .- Prior to the recent municipal elections in London, "Korn Kobb," who writes in the Free Press, issued the following address to the electors: "Gentlemen, I bow to your wishes. I have before me a requisition signed by every respectable man, woman, and child of our noble city, ask ing me to become a candidate for mayor for the ensuing year. Knowing as I do the grave interests that are involved, and feeling deeply grateful for the confidence reposed in me, I have consented to your request. No ordin ary considerations compel me to this step. Destined as London is, at no distant day to become the oil metropolis of Western Canada, it is imperatively necessary that a man of my well-known ability and integrity should have your luggage that we are of the sanie profesthe management of municipal affairs.
