AS YOU HAVE OPPORTUNITY. Mr. Frazier sat reading in his counting room.

Mr. Frazier looked at him with a suddenly awakened interest.

Mr. Frazier had already forgotten the point of interest in the news after his morning paper.

There came another long silence, in which the lad was not able to see the merchant's countenance.

Mr. Frazier noted the street and number. "And now take that note to your mother."

Mr. Frazier loved that child with a deep affection. She was all to him the child between whom and himself there had been no sympathy.

Mr. Frazier was about to marry a Southern girl for property. Will you take this woman to be your wedded wife?
