CONFEDERATION TRIUMPHANTIN - NEWFOUNDLAND.

(From the Halifax Unionist.) We have just received our papers by the steamer Merjin, and have time to inform the public that the Legislative Council of the Colony have ananomously, adopted the Quebec Fancy Dress Entertainment scheme, which, in a full house of 26 members, Tonly have voted against the measure, and 19 for it! The Anti-Confederation Press of this city have all along been representing that the new House of Newfoundland were all but manimous against Confederation, and now on the first trial of strength, the House is almost, and the Legislative Council entirely unanimous in favour. In our next number we shall give the several Resolutions passed and repared. Hon. Mr. McCully is said to have made some highly appropriate remarks in Council yesterday, in reference to the subject, in connection with Mr. Fleming's contract to complete the Picton Railway in May 1867, and the Steam Boat Companies long organized to open communication between Canada and the Lower

THE GLOBE TURNING UGLY.

(From the London Free Press.) The Globe, in a most unaccountable menner! Thursday, the 1st of March, has studiously avoided any mention of the Glengarry demonstration last week. The omission was of course purposely made, and must be taken as an intentional slight on the part of Mr. Brown, towards his late colleagues. To attack the Ministry as the Globe has recently done, and then to deny them the benefit of explanations through the same organ of public opinion, is certainly contemptible. The Leader thus pokes up the Globe on the subject :-"The Globe has not yet found out that a dinner was given to the Ministry at Cornwall on Thursday night last. Has Mr. Brown been asleep for the past week? or has he been willfully oblivious? Surely this is not treating the readers of his paper fairly----to say nothing of its unfairness towards Ministers, who 'made important explanations."

To the Editor of the Otlawa Times.
