Six more Fenian arrests are reportedfour in Dublin and two in Limerick. The impression that they are in no way different for three years at greatly reduced rates. from those Bready made public. In spite of the seven examples already made of the dupes of this movement, the practice of drilling still continued, a correspondent of the Dublin Express stating that he surprised forty men thus engaged in a field in the county of Cork. As soon as they saw him they scattered. Some sat in groups about the ditch, and the rest began the old pretence of football.

The Irish National Association have had another meeting, at which Mr. M'Swiney pre- GILLESPIE, MOFFATT & CO, sided. In the course of his address he timated that he had no present intention of contesting the county of Louth with Mr. Chichester Eortescue, although he had been party there. He then went on to condemn femanism; and to urge pathetically that all his countrymen who had joined the brother. Is prepared to accept Risks on Dwelling-houses, hood should retrace their steps. He appeal. Household Goods and Furniture, and General Merhood should retrace their steps.
