

His son heard this order given: "Send the... The President turned to the girl and said: "Go home, my child, and tell that father of yours, who could appreciate his own..."

of fall wheat, in very many cases, are excellent for food crops. Stiff clay soils, more especially if they are high and well... The national anniversary of Ireland is always celebrated in Canada with an enthusiasm...

ST. PATRICK'S DAY. The Luncheon, Etc. The national anniversary of Ireland is always celebrated in Canada with an enthusiasm...

Dr. Adamson, on the subject of the navy, here stated that during the Prince of Wales's visit to Montreal, the Minister had been taken... The Chairman next called upon Hon. Malcolm Cameron to propose the next toast—"The Day, and all who honor it."

in the ranks, but the martyrdom of those leaders in such a cause would be a glorious one for the work of uniting the people... The resolution was put and carried with a unanimous and long-continued applause.

one or two remarks for a song. The proposal of the "Land of our Adoption" had been most graciously received, and the feelings expressed in reference to the land of their adoption, as had been this afternoon from gentlemen present, had been the subject of the country that had adopted his sons...

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. On no occasion will the names of Old Advertisements be inserted here. Special Agents—Canadian Pain Destroyer, G. A. Mahon, Wheeler and Wilson's Sewing Machine, James Johnston—Firm for Sale, Clerk Wanted.

BY TELEGRAPH. Later News from Europe. ARRIVAL OF THE S.S. GERMANIA. Political News Unimportant. FRENCH EXCITEMENT ABATING! Marriage of the Princess Helena to take place in July.

At two o'clock a large company of Irishmen, of all denominations, met at the British Hotel to partake of the Luncheon, got up in honor of the day. About three o'clock the tables were all occupied, about 100 gentlemen taking places. The room was handsomely decorated with evergreens arranged in the most effective manner, and the front of the dais, occupied by the band, was draped with British flags.

Dr. Adamson, on the subject of the navy, here stated that during the Prince of Wales's visit to Montreal, the Minister had been taken... The Chairman next called upon Hon. Malcolm Cameron to propose the next toast—"The Day, and all who honor it."

in the ranks, but the martyrdom of those leaders in such a cause would be a glorious one for the work of uniting the people... The resolution was put and carried with a unanimous and long-continued applause.

one or two remarks for a song. The proposal of the "Land of our Adoption" had been most graciously received, and the feelings expressed in reference to the land of their adoption, as had been this afternoon from gentlemen present, had been the subject of the country that had adopted his sons...

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

BY TELEGRAPH. Later News from Europe. ARRIVAL OF THE S.S. GERMANIA. Political News Unimportant. FRENCH EXCITEMENT ABATING! Marriage of the Princess Helena to take place in July.

At two o'clock a large company of Irishmen, of all denominations, met at the British Hotel to partake of the Luncheon, got up in honor of the day. About three o'clock the tables were all occupied, about 100 gentlemen taking places. The room was handsomely decorated with evergreens arranged in the most effective manner, and the front of the dais, occupied by the band, was draped with British flags.

Dr. Adamson, on the subject of the navy, here stated that during the Prince of Wales's visit to Montreal, the Minister had been taken... The Chairman next called upon Hon. Malcolm Cameron to propose the next toast—"The Day, and all who honor it."

in the ranks, but the martyrdom of those leaders in such a cause would be a glorious one for the work of uniting the people... The resolution was put and carried with a unanimous and long-continued applause.

one or two remarks for a song. The proposal of the "Land of our Adoption" had been most graciously received, and the feelings expressed in reference to the land of their adoption, as had been this afternoon from gentlemen present, had been the subject of the country that had adopted his sons...

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

BY TELEGRAPH. Later News from Europe. ARRIVAL OF THE S.S. GERMANIA. Political News Unimportant. FRENCH EXCITEMENT ABATING! Marriage of the Princess Helena to take place in July.

At two o'clock a large company of Irishmen, of all denominations, met at the British Hotel to partake of the Luncheon, got up in honor of the day. About three o'clock the tables were all occupied, about 100 gentlemen taking places. The room was handsomely decorated with evergreens arranged in the most effective manner, and the front of the dais, occupied by the band, was draped with British flags.

Dr. Adamson, on the subject of the navy, here stated that during the Prince of Wales's visit to Montreal, the Minister had been taken... The Chairman next called upon Hon. Malcolm Cameron to propose the next toast—"The Day, and all who honor it."

in the ranks, but the martyrdom of those leaders in such a cause would be a glorious one for the work of uniting the people... The resolution was put and carried with a unanimous and long-continued applause.

one or two remarks for a song. The proposal of the "Land of our Adoption" had been most graciously received, and the feelings expressed in reference to the land of their adoption, as had been this afternoon from gentlemen present, had been the subject of the country that had adopted his sons...

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

BY TELEGRAPH. Later News from Europe. ARRIVAL OF THE S.S. GERMANIA. Political News Unimportant. FRENCH EXCITEMENT ABATING! Marriage of the Princess Helena to take place in July.

At two o'clock a large company of Irishmen, of all denominations, met at the British Hotel to partake of the Luncheon, got up in honor of the day. About three o'clock the tables were all occupied, about 100 gentlemen taking places. The room was handsomely decorated with evergreens arranged in the most effective manner, and the front of the dais, occupied by the band, was draped with British flags.

Dr. Adamson, on the subject of the navy, here stated that during the Prince of Wales's visit to Montreal, the Minister had been taken... The Chairman next called upon Hon. Malcolm Cameron to propose the next toast—"The Day, and all who honor it."

in the ranks, but the martyrdom of those leaders in such a cause would be a glorious one for the work of uniting the people... The resolution was put and carried with a unanimous and long-continued applause.

one or two remarks for a song. The proposal of the "Land of our Adoption" had been most graciously received, and the feelings expressed in reference to the land of their adoption, as had been this afternoon from gentlemen present, had been the subject of the country that had adopted his sons...

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

BY TELEGRAPH. Later News from Europe. ARRIVAL OF THE S.S. GERMANIA. Political News Unimportant. FRENCH EXCITEMENT ABATING! Marriage of the Princess Helena to take place in July.

At two o'clock a large company of Irishmen, of all denominations, met at the British Hotel to partake of the Luncheon, got up in honor of the day. About three o'clock the tables were all occupied, about 100 gentlemen taking places. The room was handsomely decorated with evergreens arranged in the most effective manner, and the front of the dais, occupied by the band, was draped with British flags.

Dr. Adamson, on the subject of the navy, here stated that during the Prince of Wales's visit to Montreal, the Minister had been taken... The Chairman next called upon Hon. Malcolm Cameron to propose the next toast—"The Day, and all who honor it."

in the ranks, but the martyrdom of those leaders in such a cause would be a glorious one for the work of uniting the people... The resolution was put and carried with a unanimous and long-continued applause.

one or two remarks for a song. The proposal of the "Land of our Adoption" had been most graciously received, and the feelings expressed in reference to the land of their adoption, as had been this afternoon from gentlemen present, had been the subject of the country that had adopted his sons...

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

BY TELEGRAPH. Later News from Europe. ARRIVAL OF THE S.S. GERMANIA. Political News Unimportant. FRENCH EXCITEMENT ABATING! Marriage of the Princess Helena to take place in July.

At two o'clock a large company of Irishmen, of all denominations, met at the British Hotel to partake of the Luncheon, got up in honor of the day. About three o'clock the tables were all occupied, about 100 gentlemen taking places. The room was handsomely decorated with evergreens arranged in the most effective manner, and the front of the dais, occupied by the band, was draped with British flags.

Dr. Adamson, on the subject of the navy, here stated that during the Prince of Wales's visit to Montreal, the Minister had been taken... The Chairman next called upon Hon. Malcolm Cameron to propose the next toast—"The Day, and all who honor it."

in the ranks, but the martyrdom of those leaders in such a cause would be a glorious one for the work of uniting the people... The resolution was put and carried with a unanimous and long-continued applause.

one or two remarks for a song. The proposal of the "Land of our Adoption" had been most graciously received, and the feelings expressed in reference to the land of their adoption, as had been this afternoon from gentlemen present, had been the subject of the country that had adopted his sons...

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.

as commander of one of the finest corps of volunteers in the country, (cheers) that you give me more laurels, as it is the privilege of a Field Battery from Ottawa, which is gratified with him in enthusiasm.