Sure March you've mistook for December severe, For you reign like a tyrannous, unfeeling here. Your hard-hearted doings, your presence declare, And see now the mercury's down below zero, ntense is the cold, and inclement the air. My sheltered pastures you ungallantly enter, And there on my tribes, desolation you spread. Above the cold frozen ground, scarce a flower dare

And the hardy snow-drop reclines its meek head. You crown the bleak hills in the hue of the baker, And the tops of the mountains that pierce the dark

A strange statemement comes from Paris, which brings out in strong relief the inexorable laws of court etiquette. The great French Exhibition is to be held next year, and the Prince of Wales and other Royal personages have been invited to be present at the opening. This is very good in its way, but it has been found necessary to make the Emperor's son, and Empress. Louis Napoleon on this felicitous occasion thus addressed the commission- kin House, Chatham. ers: "My son is too young to take an active | have the opportunity of learning in good time | FOURTH day of APRIL next, and following days, to honor labors which secure the prosperity at Jessup's Hotel, in the Town of Sandwich. and splendor of the State." It appears to be at the head of a body of great men! Most persons will think that absurdity can go no urther. But it will at least secure the attendance in the French capital of the heir to the March 10, 1856.

British Crown, and probably that of his consort also. In this sense, the act may be the means of cementing still more closely the Anglo-French Alliance, and the only regret is that it cannot be strengthened by means less open

"It has been rumored for a few past in this city, that the commanding officer of the Forty-seventh Infantry, Colonel Lowry, who has hitherto been above reproach as a with General Sweeney in New York, and that evidence had been discovered of a most compromising nature, tending to criminate the officer before mentioned. The Forty-seventh is full of Fenians, it is stated, and it is hinted that the command of a brigade had been offered to Colonel Lowry, and that he had accepted This is a serious charge, if true; and will shake the faith of the people in the loyalty of the British troops." [Toronto correspondence of the New York World.] The lying blackguard who wrote that paragraph, would deserve, if he could be found to be tarred and feathered. he could be found, to be tarred and feathered, and then drummed out of the city. We are admirers of the liberty of the press, but when a fellow as this hireling of the World evidentment as the gallant 47th, there is only one mode of dealing with them, and that we have the supply of indicated. There is no officer in the British ! army whose character stands more thoroughly 6,500 GALLONS above reproach or suspicion than that of the Colonel of the 47th. Proud of the profession to which he belongs, and carnest in his atservant he is, he is the last man who would sell either of them for gold—far less for the questionable distinction of serving under a Montreal low fellow like the "one armed hero" of Feniandom. And as to the gallant fellows whom he commands, their record is too bright a one to be sullied by the foul slanders of any attache of the Yankee press. The fight at A Steam Vessel Wanted. GENTLEMEN :- Having thoroughly examined and tested the Piano-Fortes invented and p tented by Mr. S. B. Druggs, I am of the opinion that the tone resulting from his improvement as exhibited in the instruments under camnation, in point of richness, depth and brilliany, equals that of the best Grand Piano-Forts, and excels them in pure, musical intension and actual tone, power thus approximating closer to what I consider perfection in the intement than has yet been achieved by any other m

During the past half century, the French and German have manufactured reed instruments with double bellows, and two pedals for the feet to Relieve Cough, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarsenes operate, but the want of the reversed or #3 HAUSTED BELLOWS, (which is the only bellow used in our instruments,) made it impossible for them to produce the mellow, rich and musical tone for which our instruments are

Another objection to this method of blowing was, that both feet being occupied, no oppor tunity was offered for the management of the swell. Within the past two years, instrument constructed on this European plan of "double blowers," have been manufactured in this country, and to counteract this difficulty (wall of a swell) a lever has been projected from the centre of the instrument, to act upon the swell AND OPERATED BY THE KREE. The inconvenience and contortion necessary to effect this object are disagreeable enough to a gentleman, but to a lady the use of such an appendage is nearly Our AUTOMATIC device obviates this difficulty entirely, the simple act of blowing with more or less force giving the desired increase of decrease in the volume of the tone. The Melodeon and School Organ. For seventeen years the superior excellent of our Melodeons has not been questioned, and for two years past the enormous demand has made it impossible for us to meet our order promptly. With our increased facilities, " feel warranted in assuring our patrons that their orders will be promptly met, and solich

a continuance of their patronage.
