EDUCATION IN ENGLAND. TORQUAY, DEVONSHIRE. ATRS. BLACKMAN, AND HER SISTER,

MESS BENNETT, receive for board and edication a limited number of young ladies, to whose moral and religious training, on Church, of England principles, they devote their utmost attention. The domestic arrangements of the establishment are under the personal superintendence of Mas. Bilackmas (a widow); whose great experience in the management of children renders her peculiarly well adapted to promote the comfort and appiness of those entrusted to her care. The salubrity of Torquay is too well known to medical practitioners in all parts of the world to require com-

The course of instruction comprises a thorough English education, with French. The terms, £40 sterling, per annum, payable half-yearly in advance, include seat at Church, laundress, and all Music, Dancing and German, each £3 per annum extra. The vacations will be fire weeks at midsummer, and a mosta at Christmas. With these views we shall constantly keep an ample staff of Teachers, so that every student may receive that individual attention which the nature of the course necessarily requires. In the selection of instructors, we shall, as is our habit, be guided not by competency alone, but shall seek out such men as we can con- Ottawa, Feb. 4, 1866. We are now in a position to point to results both in regard to the gratifying support accorded to our Institutions, in Toronto and Hamilton, and also by the high terms in which employers uniformly speak of young men who have graduated at the British American College. Another encouraging result is found in the number of applications constantly made to us to recommend Book-keepers who have passed through our extensive course. We, therefore, have no hesitation in pledging ourselves to carry out in this city a system which has so emphatically received the stamp of public approbation, both in Toronto and Hamilton; and we may add throughout the Province. Out of the many flattering letters which we have received from time to time, we may select the two fol-[Frum J. G. Your system supplies a most important desideratum in the education of youth. It has often ELLIOTT'S DENTRIFICE, surprised me that the community at large seems blind to the utility of such training as your valuable, or rather invaluable, institution affords. I have asked how it is that a man professing to be a physican will not be employed, and will even be stigmatised as a "quack," except he has gone through a regular course of anatomy, physiciogy, and so forth, and has also attended an hospital and clinical lectures; and the same may be said of the lawyer; and yet a youth is taken into a counting-house or store, wholly ignorant of the duties he undertakes, and having everything to learn. I consider, therefore, that such a system as yours is of the greatest importance both to the employer and employed, as it saves the former the time and labor of teaching every new hand, and the latter the waste of time involved in a long apprenticeship. Your admirable system of real business is a complete remedy for this defect, and I consider And Toilet Requisites of every the six of reality that your study. M. Tononto, 23rd December, 1865.

GENTLEMEN,—I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the excellent system pursued in your College, from a personal inspection of the working of the establishment, and having in my employment young men who have been educated by you. I have to express my entire satisfaction with the method and arrangements you have adopted, and the real and assiduity with which you carry them out. I was and arrangements you have adopted, and the seat and assiduity with which you carry them out. I was certainly amazed in visiting your Bank, Merchants' Emporium and Exchange Office, and witnessing the cagerness and business-like manner of your clerks, tellers, and merchants, and have no doubt but a youth trained in your College, on entering a counting-house or store, will be very competent to discharge the neth, Campbell & Co., (Medical Hall) Montreal,

Your exertions are making a great improvement in the capabilities of the rising generation of our salesmen and accountants, and from being obliged, as in former years, to put up with boys from school, we can now procure young men thoroughly prepared and ready to enter on their duty in a manner to command our confidence in their ability and accuracy. I beg to congratulate you upon the manner in which your labors have been appreciated by the public, as evidenced by the fact of your having to enlarge your promises for the accommunication of the great large read in your profile. cularge your promises for the accommodation of the great increase in your pupils. Wishing you every success
