TENTH MATCH FOR THE BILLIARD CHAMPIONSHIP OF AMERICA.

Dion Wins the Day. (From the N. Y. Tribune, May 21.) The tenth match for the championship was played last evening at Cooper Institute, between John Deery-of New York, holder of the hampion cue, and Joseph Dion of Montreal. The former has been champion since Septem-Devitt in a game which was neither close nor particularly creditable to either player. Before young man, was a veteran player, and had player of the two. In the preposter matches, Deery has advantage over most playto endure the fatigue which a game of 1,500 points, lasting four or five hours, occasions

For protracted exertions of this kind, a man with all the precautions we have taken we needs to be a good gymnast as well as a billiard player, and we believe the billiard fraternity agree that the length of the championship games ought to be abridged. It is all very of the nerves, and mental application, as billi but it was based on what he had done in Montreal, or on what from that city he had signiplayed out one game in public, and in that Deery, whose frequent appearances might be supposed to have given him confidence for performing before a crowded assembly.
