THE PROPRIETORS OF THE ABOVE first-class establishment beg to draw the attention of tourists to the comfort and advantages to be Ottawa, May 23.

The St. Louis Hotel is undeniably the largest and best fitted up hotel in Quebec, and one of the finest and best appointed houses in British North Ameriea. Encouraged by the liberal patronage extended to them by the travelling public, an addition of 60 sleeping rooms was made last fall, and the hotel is now capable of accommodating with comfort 350 to It is situated in a healthy and fashionable part of the city, in the vicinity of Terraces and Gardens. from which splendid views can be had of the magnificent scenery for which Quebec is celebrated house of business in a few days, with a large stock throughout the world.

TADOCSSAC is admitted to be one of the most picturesque spots in America, and probably the most desirable resort for Tourists and Invalids on this Continent. In short, the locality is now so widely known, that it is almost superduous to describe it. but, for the beneat of such as have not made the tour of the SAGUENAY, it may be necessary to state that Tadoussac is situated at the junction of the Saguency and St. Lawrence Rivers, and is the last stopping place on the route between Quebec and stopping place on the route between Quebec and Ha! Ha! Bay, and between which points a dally line of steamers will ply regularly during the trarelling season. The noble Bay of Tadoussac, in which whales, porpoises, &c., daily sport the uselves, is immediately in front of the Hotel. Inward and entward bound vessels are distinctly obse.vable from its windows and balconies. Having thus the advantage of a new, capacious, and elegant Hotel, situated in a most desirable losality, of easy access, and surrounded with innumcomfort of his guests, to perform his part well. He therefore pledges himself that nothing shall be therefore pledges himself that nothing shall be wanting on his part to conduce to that end, being letermined to give his patrons the full beneat of his long experience as a caterer to the public.
