Taboussac is aumitted to be one of the most pic turesque spots in America, and probably the most destrable resort for Tourists and Invalors on this Continent. In short, the locality is now so winely known, that it is almost supermous to describe it. But, for the beneat of such as have not made the tour of the SAGUENAY, it may be necessary to state that Tauoussac is situated at the junction of the Saguenny and St. Lawrence hivers, and is the last stopping place on the route between Quebec and HA! HA! BAY, and between which points a daily tine of steamers will ply regularly auring the traveiling season. The mobie Bay of Tauoussac, in which whates, porpotses, &c., usily sport themselves, is immediately in front of the Hotel. Inward and outward bound vessels are distinctly observable from its windows and balconies. Having thus the advantage of a new, capacious, and elegant Hotel, situated in a most desirable locality, or easy access, and surrounded with innummerable attractions, the Subscriber feels that it is only requisite, in order to ensure the happiness and comfort of his guests, to perform his part well. He therefore pleages himself that nothing shall be wanting on his part to conduce to that end, being determined to give his patrons the full beneat of his long experience as a caterer to the public.
