SEWING MACHINES.

They are a blessing, Morally, Mentally and Physically. Hood has sung in pathetic strains how: "With fingers weary and worn, With eyelids heavy and red, A woman sat in unwomanly rags,

Plying her needle and thread; Stitch ! stitch ! In poverty, hunger and dirt,
And still with a voice of dolorous pitch—
She sang the 'Song of the Shirt.'"

Every philanthropist has wished that this poor woman had been supplied with one of WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINES, that Hood might have written truthfully of her,-A woman sat in an elegant room,

With joyous heart and looks serene;
Her delicate fingers guided her work,
And her foot was turning a Sewing Machine.
She sang the last new Opera Song,
As the cast iron Doreas sewed the seams,
She sewed the buttons where they belong,
And blessed the inventor of Sewing Machines.

Who does not envy Messrs. Wheeler & Wilson

The earnest seeker after domestic felicity cannot invest $50 more profitably than in the purchase of a SEWING MACHINE. The female members of his household will be relieved of their sewing drudgery. What was labor will become recreation, and they will hereafter have time for social enjoyment and intellectual culture. But we will not attempt to prove what everybody admits, that every family should have a Sewing Machine. The question is—What kind to get? The answer is—Get the Best! Which means WHEELER & WILSON'S. They will execute in a superior style, a greater variety of work; they are more simple in construction than any other Lock Stitch Machines, and are consequently more durable and less liable to get out of repair, and they work with less noise and friction than any other. These are facts that have been certified to by impartial judges at Town, County, Provincial, State, National, and World's Exhibitions in Europe
