TRIAL BY JURY.

To the Editor of the Ottawa Times: . OTTAWA, Nov. 16, 1866. Sm,-On reading your paper this morning I was much astonished at the contents of a long letter, over the signature of "Mark," which advocated the giving up of trial by jury, and giving the sole power to our judges of "filling up the deficiencies of our criminal law, by relaxing its stiffness, of measuring out the degrees of its penalties, &c." The writer brings forward a most flat assertion that "trial by jury is a-solemn farce," and the only argument he adduces to maintain it, is the following question, "which of your neighbors is there, but will tell you of some injury he has suffered at the hands of a jury panel?" Exactly so, and now, Mr. Editor, I would ask you the following question; did you ever hear of or see a man who was a loser in any diswhether tried by an arbitrator, or settled main force, say that he lost justly? would be the same, if the judges decided the issue, the losing party would not be satisfied. The judge would then stand in the position of Messrs, P. A. Egleson, and George May, Sussex an arbitrator. No. Mr. Editor, never let us tution, those inquests by twelve true men, responsible alone to God and their conscience, the unadulterated voice of the people, which is now heard in the sanctuaries of justice, as a day there was a better enquiry for 5-20 bonds, never let us be ashamed to say that " we stick and sales were reported at 70% to 70%, against to the system because it is old, and because it Ottawa, November 21. 70 to 704 on Saturday.
