Ottawa, December ! To the Electors of St. George's Ward :

stock is respectfully solicited.

Remember the place, No. 42, North side Rideau Street. TENTLEMEN : As the time is approach. ing when you will be called upon, under the new Municipal Institution Act, to nominate and elect your representatives for the Council of this BEWARE : JACK PROST IS HERE. City-at the solicitation of many of my friends-I beg respectfully to offer myself again as a Candidate for your suffrages in the capacity of Alderman.

During the period I have had the honor of being During the period I have had the honor of being one of your representatives, I have endeavored, to and thereby a reduction of taxation; at the same time I have supported such necessary measures of improvement as would not entail too heavy a burden on the people.

In my humble efforts for the general good, the especial claims of St. George's Ward were never forgotten; and I trust that upon all occasions, when compatible with prudence and a due regard for our financial position, I have ever evinced an honest desire to secure for St. George's Ward its legitimate share of public expenditure.

I would submit to you, in furthering such measures as the above my voice was never silent or my vote wanting; and for corroboration of the same I would refer you to the minutes of the Corporation, and on one occasion I felt it my duty to place in the hands of the Mayor of this City my written protest against illegal and extravagant contracts.

Submitting the above for your consideration, and holding myself responsible for no acts of the Council except those I have supported, I respectfully solicit your support; and if again the recipient of your confidence, I promise to follow in the future. as I have in the past, an independent, faithful and honest course.
