claim, but since it has been deprived of the only source, or one of the chief sources of the advantages it derived from the building, it is not unfair to ask the railway by whose act it suffers the loss to make it some compensation.

We have not enquired into the authority of the rumor started recently that the gallant Humboldt is to be removed from Ottawa in the Spring. We have been informed to disprove it, perhaps, because we do not desire that it should prove correct.

By and by, we shall have the Governor General and Vice-Chief of the Province in our midst to open the first Parliament of the Confederation, and who can more appropriately be found to do the military honors on that interesting occasion than our own Canadian regiments?
