OTTAWA. FEBRUARY 28, 1867.

Mr. Frank Buckland, the editor of Land and Water, has been appointed by the H me Secretary as an Inspector of Salmon Fisheries, jointly with Mr. Ffennel, in the room of Mr. Eden; who has resigned. Dr. Buckland is a practical naturalist, of great energy and very respectable scientific acquirements. He is a ready and pleasing writer, and conveys in formation in an easy, popular style, using such plain language as everybody can undertempt, and we certainly think that Lincoln's stand, in preference to the perplexing jargon of purely scientific nomenclature. He resigned his situation and practice as a surgeon in the Life Guards to devote his time in the cultivation of fish and oysters, and established a museum at his own expense in the Royal Horticultural Gardens. We are glad to see his labors appreciated, and fresh facilities thus afforded him to turn to practical account his in a very humiliating position by a violent views and knowledge of economic fish cul. personal attack ou S. ing these large Bonus Additions when he reaches VALUABLE PROVISION FOR HIS OWN AF TER-LIFETIME BY A CASH PAYMENT For example, a Policy-holder for £1,000 at age.

25, on his attaining the average period of persons of that age, will, at that rate of Bonns, have had an addition to his Assurance of £1560; making the sum assured £2560, instead of £1000, Or, he may then exchange this large Boons Adlition for One Cash Payment of about £1000 to Or he may exchange the Bonus Addition for an Annuity of about £102 payable during his life.

Such exchange will in no respect affect the sum

Assured, which, as well as the right to future Bonuses will remain intact for the lieirs or other purposes of the Policy-holder. UNDER NO OTHER SYSTEM Can anything like the same amount of benefits be ostained, whether as regards increase of sum Assured, or an equivalent in Cash Payment or Life Annuity.

An Assurer during the current year in Class will receive, at next Division, One-Fifth more Bonus than later Entrants-the difference being probably so much as £40 on a £1000 policy... The 28th Annual Balance will be made on 5th April, 1867. Previous entrants will rank for profits of one year's longer standing than later entrants.
