OTTAWA, AUGUST 19, 1867.

The nomination for the city takes place to-day at the City Hall, at eleven o'clock . m. Doubtless there will be a large andance of electors, though, as the custom of taking a show of hands has very properly been abolished, candidates have not so much interest in a large muster of their tion for the county of Carleton takes place and vice versa. to-day at Bell's Corners, at noon.

In addition to these two, nominations also unreasonable. No candidate in appealing for take clace to-day in Kingston, South Ontario (at Whitby,) so that the serious vork of the campaign has fairly commenced.

THAT erstwhile ferocious exponent of adulterated Brownism, the Perth Courier, has now begun to sing very small over the political sentiment of Lanark County, Some three or four months ago it announced the the Reformers of the North Riding had resolved upon demanding Mr. Macpougall's retirement as a necessary condition of their continued support. In its issue of Friday

" Except for the Local Legislature in th South Riding, there does not appear to be any prospect of a contest in Lanark County. Mr. dougall and his policy of Coalition, seems to meet the approbation of the North Riding: at any rate that constituency is not prepared to assume the responsibility of bringing out as opposition candidate, so that it may be | who was book-keeper for Mr. W. BRADBUR

What a falling off was there !"

Sometimes, by way of amusement, we call attention to the vagaries and vaticinations of the " only religious daily," or the " only "daily religious (we forget which) paper pub-" lished in the world"-the Montreal Witness. In its issue of the 16th, it says "the organ of the French Canadian priest party "has boldly claimed that Lower Canada, by " its solid vote, will control the Federal Le-"gislature," &c., &c., but it does not suit the purpose of this christian writer to explai that the assertion-it was not a claim-was predicated on an estimate of the result of th elections, copied from a Western paper wherein the representation of Ontario and Acadia was about equally divided between the Ministry and the Opposition; and ministerial (supposed) majority, made up a most exclusively of Lower Canada voter Upon such a calculation any dolt raight se that, having the majority, Lower Canad would, as a necessary consequence, have the controlling power in the Legislature, that fact she could not divest herself of it without abdicating her parliamentary rights.

But the point which the Witness wants make is a puff for George Brown, and it ac cordingly starts with an insinuation that the CARTIER party desire to perpetuate sectiona supremacy, that it might the more readily pander to the prejudices of the Western remedy" for this state of things, and it is that " the other Provinces should return solid o'clock. "delegations as well as Lower Canada." To this there can be no possible objection by any friend of Canada, provided these several " solidities" come together prepared to fuse harmoniously for the good of the whole councontrol the whole Union by adopting merit a wreath at the hands of Ottawa-nous "this plan," a course of which the Wilness | perrons. highly approves, though it denounces precasely the same thing in the case of Quebec, as an "anomalous and dangerous state of things!" What can the public think of the christian principles of this self-righteons scribe when they find his two sets of weights | previous night, 30 above zero. and measures unblushingly held up before their eyes within the narrow space of a seventeen line paragraph! The "only religious daily" is a very model of morality.

In the next paragraph our brother read the auguries. He is an adept at divination having achieved his reputation in this occult science during the American war "Nor are the indications wanting," says the Witness,"that Ontario perceives the "true state of the case, and is preparing to "take her true position in our national coun-"cils." 'Of course she is, but not in the sense which the Witness can approve, for Ontario Cook, publishers, No. 1, Vol. 1, August 15, 1867 perceives that her true position is one of har- $2, per annum; mony with, not of antagonism to, the friends anxiously desires to see represented by as subjects bearing directly on financial enterlarge majorities as possible; and with which | prise in banking, insurance, commerce, joint majorities her majority will be prepared to stock companies, &c., &c. The first number work in concert for the common good; but is very creditably got up, and we wish the punot for the assertion of provincial or sectional blication success.

The Witness is delighted to perceive that the question of leadership of the solid delegation which Ontario, in the future indefinite, is to send to the National Councils, "appears to " be solved, by common consent, in favor of " the Hon. George Brown again." There is a Ferrier's philosophical remains; the Conneil world of meaning in that little word "again." The Witness longs for the restoration of sectionalstrife; it remembers well that whenever, and so long as, Gronge Brown was the leader of a party, that party was at war with the Lower Canada majority; who, therefore, so The Witness has sagaciously scented out the right man for directing the unholy work of arraying Province against Province, and truly interpreted the end and aim of GRORGE Brows's fresh political crusade; but this with being drunk on the public streets, and has been well understood in Ontario, and fined $2 or three weeks,-Dennis Trudeau was Reformers," and a very large number too, re- Ryan's yard where he was seen to take a hen, fuse to be dragged at his heels. THE DUAL ELECTIONS.

elections to which we desire to direct the at ing our new Dominion renders it imperative that the writs for election should issue simul pense attending a Parliamentary contest, and quently to interfere with the best interests of the people themselves in the choice of repre gentatives. This difficulty is especially apt to arise in the case of constituencies where the candidates all profess to belong to the sam party, and are arrayed on the same side in the political contest, as in the city of Ottawa and the county of Carleton.

The friends of the respective gentlemen of fering for the Commons insist, in some in stances, that their favorites should be support friends as they formerly had. The nomina- ed by the candidates for the Local Legislatur

> Nothing can be more unreasoning, or more support for himself for one branch should l expected to interfere with the choice of the electors for the other, and to ask him to do s when the issue is merely a personal one altogether unreasonable. Where the content depends solely upon the individual merits of the men proposed, it does not follow that th respective supporters of each candidate for the Commons should agree in their choice of the Local Candidates, or that the supporter of the Local Candidates should have the sam views regarding the aspirants to the Con mons. Under these circumstances, prudence and common sense alike suggest the propr of each candidate confining his attention the contest in which he is himself engage
